Walking in Faith, Sowing Christ's Love

'Walking in Faith, Sowing Christ's Love' invites us to explore what it means to follow Christ in everyday life. Each month, we will reflect on Scripture, Lutheran teaching, and practical ways to grow in faith and share God's love with others. Through these reflections, we hope to deepen our trust in God's promises, live out our calling as Christ's disciples, and find guidance for nurturing faith in our homes, workplaces, and communities. Each article concludes with a question for personal reflection, helping us walk more faithfully with God.

April – Growing in Hope

Christian hope is not optimism. It is not wishful thinking or denial of hardship. Hope, in the biblical sense, is rooted in the resurrection of Jesus Christ. It is confidence that God's promises are stronger than death, stronger than despair, and stronger than anything that would undo us.

Peter writes, 'By his great mercy he has given us a new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead' (1 Peter 1:3). Notice the phrase: living hope. It is active, dynamic, sustained by the risen Christ Himself. The resurrection is not simply a past event to commemorate; it is a present reality shaping how we interpret suffering, loss, and uncertainty.

In Lutheran theology, hope flows directly from justification by grace. Because we are reconciled to God through Christ, our future is secured not by our performance but by God's promise. Romans 5:3–5 tells us that even suffering produces endurance, character, and hope — not because suffering is good in itself, but because God works through it.

Hope does not remove hardship, but it reframes it. The cross precedes resurrection. The Church lives in that tension — honest about suffering yet confident in God's redemptive work. This is what distinguishes Christian hope from mere positivity. It dares to look at death and say, 'This is not the end.'

Hebrews describes hope as 'an anchor for the soul, firm and secure' (Hebrews 6:19). An anchor does not eliminate storms, but it keeps the vessel steady. Likewise, hope steadies us when cultural shifts, personal crises, or global anxieties threaten to overwhelm us.

To grow in hope is to rehearse God's promises — to return again and again to the empty tomb. It is to proclaim, even in dark seasons, that Christ is risen and that resurrection life has already begun. It is to become people whose presence brings steadiness and courage to others.

As those walking in faith, we sow Christ's love most clearly when we embody hope. When we refuse cynicism. When we persist in mercy. When we pray with expectation. When we continue serving even when results are not immediate. Hope is not passive waiting; it is active trust.

Easter proclaims that God's future has broken into the present. That future shapes how we live now — with resilience, joy, and quiet confidence.

Reflection Question:

Where in your life do you most need resurrection hope right now — and how might Christ's victory reshape your perspective?

Pastor Steve

FROM INTERN BETH...

Walking alongside you all throughout this year, I've had a blast learning about Saint Paul's history, developing relationships within the congregation, stepping into the ministries of the church, and taking part in your traditions. Not wanting to pass up the invitation, I jumped at the opportunity to experience your Fat Tuesday tradition of lunch at The Brick.

Shrove Tuesday is held the day before Lent begins and marks a time of confession and consuming fatty foods before the start of the Lenten season. Christians have historically fasted throughout the 40 days of Lent, avoiding foods that come from animals including butter, eggs, and milk. Shrove Tuesday served as the day all those ingredients would be consumed prior to the season of confession and repentance leading up to Easter. Over the centuries, pancakes have become the perfect food that uses up all these ingredients. The Tuesday before Lent continues to be celebrated as Pancake Day in places around the world while other places celebrate the day as Mardi Gras or Fat Tuesday with a festival celebration containing rich, sweet foods.

As the festival has grown and changed throughout the years, some places have adopted their own practices into the celebrations. In Louisiana, Mardi Gras carnivals revolve around King Cakes instead of pancakes. The cake is a circular pastry that symbolizes the three King's journey and arrival to meet baby Jesus. In King Cakes today, there is typically a small, plastic baby Jesus hidden inside. If you happen to get the baby Jesus in your piece, you are responsible for hosting the party and providing the cake next year.

Throughout the last couple years I have experienced three very different Shrove Tuesday celebrations. A few years ago, I was attending a church that had a big pancake dinner together and then burned the ashes for their Ash Wednesday service following the meal. For me this year really highlighted the symbolism of moving from celebration into the reflection and confession that we all walk through in Lent. Last year I happened to be in Geneva, Switzerland for Fat Tuesday where the group I was travelling with went to a local creperie. For me, that year represented more of a joyous celebration in the faith and fellowship of the students who gathered together for the week of exploring our faith. Then, this year I got to experience The Brick and the King Cake celebration where I felt an emphasis on the history and community at Saint Paul. And with that celebration, with your tradition of King Cakes, as someone who got a baby Jesus in my piece of cake, I will make sure the plans for a festive celebration and delicious pastry are in the hands of someone trustworthy for next year!

UPCOMING WORSHIP

Below are the lessons and some thoughts about the upcoming Sundays. Please take some time to look over the lesson and reflect upon them in preparation of the upcoming weeks in worship.

April 5th:

Text—Matthew 28:1-10 (Easter Sunday)

This is the day the Lord has made! Christ is risen, and through him all creation is made new! Indeed, "God shows no partiality" (Acts 10:34): Christ's resurrection truly brings life to everyone. We sing hymns of praise, gather around sacred words, and proclaim God's faithfulness, power, and love in the feast of holy communion. With the women at the tomb, we are astonished, elated, and grateful. We depart with joy to proclaim the good news of God's endless love.

April 12th:

Text—John 20:19-31

In today's gospel the risen Christ appears to the disciples and offers them the gift of peace. Even amid doubts and questions, we experience the resurrection in our Sunday gathering around word and meal, and in our everyday lives. Throughout the coming Sundays of Easter the first two readings will be from the Acts of the Apostles and the first letter of Peter. Even as the early Christians proclaimed the resurrection, we rejoice in the new birth and living hope we receive in baptism.

April 19th:

Text—Luke 24:13-35

Today's gospel begins with two disciples walking to Emmaus, overcome with sadness, loss, and disappointment. They had hoped Jesus, who was crucified, would be the one to redeem Israel! Yet the risen Christ walks with them and then opens their eyes in the breaking of the bread. Each Sunday our hearts burn within us as the scriptures are proclaimed and Christ appears to us as bread is broken and wine is poured. The story of Emmaus becomes the pattern of our worship each Lord's day.

April 26th:

Text—John 10:1-10

(The Indiana-Kentucky Synod Bishop will be preaching this day)

Today is sometimes called 'Good Shepherd Sunday.' Jesus is called the 'gate' of the sheep in today's gospel. The risen Christ opens the way to abundant life. He anoints our heads with oil and guides us beside the still waters of our baptism. Each Sunday he spreads a feast before us amid the world's violence and war. We go forth to be signs of the resurrection and extend God's tender care to all creation.

We live stream our 8:00 a.m. worship services.

SUNDAY SNIPPET

This is a short, prerecorded video that has prayer, benediction, a scripture reading from the appointed readings for that Sunday and a brief reflection/commentary on the reading.

*Both of these can be found
Sunday mornings on our
YouTube channel at:
St Paul Lutheran Borchers*
