November 2026

From the Pastor's Desk:

Walking in Faith, Sowing Christ's Love

'Walking in Faith, Sowing Christ's Love' invites us to explore what it means to follow Christ in everyday life. Each month, we will reflect on Scripture, Lutheran teaching, and practical ways to grow in faith and share God's love with others. Through these reflections, we hope to deepen our trust in God's promises, live out our calling as Christ's disciples, and find guidance for nurturing faith in our homes, workplaces, and communities. Each article concludes with a question for personal reflection, helping us walk more faithfully with God.

November – Harvest of Gratitude

As the year draws toward its close and fields yield their harvest, November invites us to reflect on gratitude. Scripture consistently links thanksgiving to faith. Gratitude is not merely a seasonal sentiment; it is a theological posture — a way of seeing life through the lens of grace.

James reminds us, 'Every generous act of giving, with every perfect gift, is from above, coming down from the Father of lights' (James 1:17). Gratitude begins with recognition. We are not self-made. Our daily bread, our relationships, our congregation, even our faith itself — all are gifts. To give thanks is to acknowledge dependence on God.

For Luther, gratitude was the natural response to justification by grace. If salvation is entirely God's work, then boasting is replaced by thanksgiving. The First Article of the Creed, in Luther's explanation, teaches that God has given us 'body and soul, eyes, ears, and all my members... and still preserves them.' The proper response? 'For all this I owe it to God to thank and praise, serve and obey Him.'

Gratitude reshapes our perspective. In Philippians 4:6–7, Paul urges believers not to be anxious but to present requests to God 'with thanksgiving.' Even in difficulty, thanksgiving anchors us in trust. It does not deny hardship; it situates hardship within the larger reality of God's faithfulness.

There is also a connection between gratitude and generosity. Paul writes in 2 Corinthians 9:11–12 that generosity 'produces thanksgiving to God.' When we recognize abundance as gift, we become freer to share it. Gratitude loosens the grip of scarcity. It transforms fear into open-handed trust.

A harvest theme also invites reflection on spiritual fruit. What has God grown in us this year? Where have we seen patience deepen, hope strengthen, love expand? Sometimes the growth is subtle, visible only in hindsight. Yet when we pause to look back, we often see God's quiet faithfulness.

Importantly, gratitude is practiced. It is cultivated through intentional remembrance — naming blessings, recounting answered prayers, celebrating milestones. The Psalms repeatedly call the people of God to remember His deeds. Memory fuels thanksgiving.

To walk in faith is to recognize that every step rests on grace. To sow Christ's love is to respond to grace with generosity. Gratitude bridges the two. It keeps faith from becoming entitlement and love from becoming obligation.

As we give thanks this month — in worship, around tables, in quiet prayer — we participate in a rhythm that has shaped God's people for centuries. Thanksgiving does not conclude the journey; it prepares us for what lies ahead, grounded in the assurance that the God who has provided thus far will continue to do so.

Reflection Question:

Where have you seen God's faithfulness this year — and how might gratitude reshape your response to both blessing and challenge?

Pastor Steve

Upcoming Worship

Below are the lessons and some thoughts about the upcoming Sundays. Please take some time to look over the lesson and reflect upon them in preparation of the upcoming weeks in worship.

November 1st:

Text— Matthew 5:1-12 (All Saints Sunday)

All Saints celebrates the baptized people of God, living and dead, who are the body of Christ. As November heralds the dying of the landscape in many northern regions, the readings and liturgy call us to remember all who have died in Christ and whose baptism is complete. At the Lord's table we gather with the faithful of every time and place, trusting that the promises of God will be fulfilled and that all tears will be wiped away in the new Jerusalem.

November 8th:

Text— Matthew 25:1-13

Today the prophet Amos calls for justice to roll down like waters. Paul urges us to encourage one another with the promised coming of the Lord. Jesus tells the parable of the wise and foolish bridesmaids. Surrounded by the faithful of every time and place, we celebrate Christ's coming in our midst in the word of life and the feast of victory—the marriage feast of the lamb.

November 15th:

Text— Matthew 25:14-30

Our readings during November speak of the end times. Zephaniah proclaims that the coming day of the Lord will be filled with wrath and distress. Paul says it will come like a thief in the night and urges us to be awake and sober. Jesus tells the parable of the talents, calling us to use our gifts, while we still have time, for the greater and common good. In a world filled with violence and despair, we gather around signs of hope—word, water, bread and wine—eager to welcome the good news of Christ's coming among us.

November 22nd:

Text— Matthew 25:31-46 (Christ the King Sunday)

On this final Sunday of the church year our gospel is Jesus' great story of judgment. In the end, the faithful are those who served Christ by ministering to those who are poor, hungry, naked, sick, or estranged. In the first reading God is the shepherd who seeks the lost, weak, and injured and feeds them with justice. We gather this day to celebrate the reign of Christ and his victory over death, yet awaiting the consummation of all things yet to come. Acknowledging Christ as our merciful ruler, we go forth that his reign may be known in our loving words and deeds.

November 29th:

Text— Mark 13:24-37

Stir up your power, and come! The psalmist's plea in Psalm 80:2 has become familiar to us in the Advent prayers. Isaiah wants God to rip the heavens open. Both cry out for an apparently distant, angry God to show up, to save, to restore. When we hear Jesus describing the coming of the Son of Man with stars falling from heaven, it can sound dire and horrible, not like anything we would ever hope for. But when we really look at the suffering of people God loves, we can share the hope that God would tear open the heavens and come.

Romans: Living in the Power of God's Grace

Paul's Letter to the Romans is one of the most influential and profound books of the New Testament. Written to a diverse community of Jewish and Gentile Christians in Rome, Paul's letter explores the heart of the Christian faith and the transforming power of God's grace. Along the way, we will consider how this ancient letter continues to shape the Church and our daily lives today.

Funeral Meal Help

Four ladies have volunteered to be kitchen leaders on a rotation for funeral meals. Now we are asking for 4 teams of 3 additional people (male or female) to help in the kitchen. This would be set up, serve and clean up. These teams would be under a leader and rotate with the leader. The sign-up sheet for food would continue. If you have a conflict when it is your team's time to serve, no problem, there would be a pool of people to fill in from the other teams. If you would like to be on a funeral meal team, please add your name to the sign-up sheet at the Welcome Center. Any questions, see or call Linda Newkirk.
